Conflict Management & Resolution

OCT 30, 2025
Dinner Provided

Join us for "Conflict Management & Resolution for Neighborhoods" part of the Neighborhood 101 Workshop series! Whether you're a long-time resident striving for harmony or a passionate community leader, this session will equip you with practical tools to foster understanding and resolve conflicts constructively.

We're thrilled to welcome Chaunice Dubose, whose expertise in conflict management and community engagement will guide us through this enlightening workshop. Chaunice R. DuBose is an experienced human resource professional and a dedicated community leader based in Fort Wayne, Indiana. A proud graduate of Purdue University Fort Wayne, Chaunice has deep roots in the city, having been born and raised here. Her commitment to enhancing her community is exemplified through her role as the president of the Tamera Place Neighborhood Association.

With a passion for human resources and a strong desire to help individuals navigate and resolve challenging issues, Chaunice brings valuable insights and practical strategies to her conflict management and resolution course. Her expertise in human resources equips her with the skills necessary to facilitate effective communication and foster collaboration among diverse groups.

Chaunice is excited to share her knowledge and experience with the presidents of neighborhood associations, empowering them to create harmonious and thriving communities in Fort Wayne.

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

Throughout the 90-minute session, participants will explore effective strategies to address and de-escalate neighborhood disputes, mediate challenging situations, and create opportunities for collaboration and connection. From communication techniques to conflict-resolution models, this interactive workshop will empower you to strengthen your neighborhood and enhance community relationships.

We'll wrap up with a hands-on activity where you'll practice applying these skills to real-world scenarios, fostering mutual respect and collaboration. Together, let's create communities where understanding prevails!
